

This is the second workshop in a series of training sessions for youth and their families

Person-Centered Planning

A positive and interactive planning process that focuses on building a bright future for youth with disabilities

A workshop for Youth ages 14- 21, their Families and Caregivers

Learn about :

- What Person-Centered Planning means
- How Person-Centered Planning makes a positive difference
- Resources in the community that can help you begin Person-Centered Planning and help you plan for your future

Presenters: The Arc in Jeffco, Youth/Families, Jeffco Public Schools, DDRC, and Jeffco Workforce Center

Date: August 19, 2008

Time: 5:00pm – Workforce Center tours
5:30pm (Light dinner served)
5:45 – 7:00pm (Presentation)

Location: Jefferson County Workforce Center
(Located behind the Jeffco Courthouse and the Human Services Building)
3500 Illinois Street
Laramie Building, 2nd Floor Training Room
Golden, CO 80401

<http://www.mapquest.com/maps/3500+Illinois+St+Golden+CO/>

Registration: This is a free session!

Please contact Edie Bridge at 303.315.1271 ext 1

OR

E-mail Edie at edie.bridge@ucdenver.edu

OR

Sign up at www.cowinpartners.org and click on 'upcoming training and events'

Reasonable Accommodation Requests

Please contact Edie to request any reasonable accommodation you may need in order to fully participate in the training by August 13, 2008. Materials will be provided in alternate formats upon request.

Co-sponsored by: Children, Youth and Families Division of Jefferson County

colorado

